Washington, June 10.-The important is formation was given out by the Division of Customs and Insular Affairs of the War of Customs and Insular Altairs of the War Department that the exports at the port of Manila, Philippine Islands, for the first three months of 1906 show an increase of $2,050.443 over the same period of 1899. The exports for January, 1899, were $1,252.80C; for January, 1900, $63.275; for February, 1890, $3.429.565; for February, 1900, $1,630.731; for March, 1899, $868.631; for March, 1900, $5,382,-388.

In the matter of imports from the Philippines during the month of March, 1999, Hong-Kong leads, England ranks second, and the United States third. In the month of March, 1999, there were exported from the port of Manila 15.59 tons of manila hemp, valued at $1,293.57. The United States took 3.745 trns, valued at $1,215.59, and England 19.281 tons, valued at $1,235.53.

The notable increase in the value of merchandise exported during the month of March, 1999, from the port of Manila is largely due to the opening of numerous customs ports to the coastwise trade, thus permitting large quantities of hemp to be brought to Manila for export.

OHIO CONVENTION TO-MORROW.

Bryan Will Be Indorsed-Candidates for the Places.

Columbus, O., June 10.-The Democratic State Convention meets here next Tuesday and Wednesday to select delegates-at-large and alternates to the Kansas City convention and to nominate candidates for electors at large, Secretary of State, Judge of the Supreme Court, Dairy and Food Commissioner, Commissioner of Schools and members of Board of Public Works.

There is the usual list of contestants for the State offices, and the usual diversity of opinion as to the platform. The indications are that the big four to the National Convention will have new timber. It has been the custom for the Governor or the candidate for Governor at the preceding election to head the list of delegates at large. and alternates to the Kansas City conven-

John R. There will be no effort to advance the Dewey candidacy for the presidency as had been expected would be the case here this week. It is conceded that the convention will unanimously indorse Bryan for President.

Among the most prominent names mentioned for delegates-at-large are Colonel James Kilbourne of Columbus, the leading candidate against McLean for the nomination for Governor last year; Williams Thomas of Springfield, chairman of the State Committee; John C. Welty of Cauton, Charles N. Haskell of Ottawa, George W. Hull of Toledo, A. W. Patrick of Tuscarawas, Horace L. Chapman of Jackson, John J. Lentz of Columbus, Frank M. Merriett of Delaware and Herman Groesbeck of Cincinnati.

Cincinnati.

There is a movement here to try to have the national Democratic headquarters located in Columbus during this campaign. It is asserted that the Democratic State Committee of Kentucky has indorsed Columbus. The State Convention of West Virginia last Thursday adopted a strong resolution indorsing Columbus for the national Democratic headquarters, and similar movements are on foot in other States. It is declared that the Democras should carry the war into McKinley's State and contest every county in Ohio. It is also argued that the border States of Indiana, Kentucky and West Virginia are the doubtful ones that may decide the results, and that they are easily reached from Columbus.

Rose Markham Fell Backwards Over the Tailboard.

Rose Markham of No. 1613 Market street, who is at the City Hospital, will bear witness to the fact that even bus lines are no afe to ride on nowadays. Yesterday she started out to Westminster place in a wagon which had been pressed into pas-senger service for the day and fitted out with chairs instead of benches. As the wagon reached Spring avenue she tilted back her chair in order to rest more easily in the vehicle, but as the horse gave a lurch at the same moment, the chair con-tinued to tilt backwards and dumped her over the tailboard of the wagon. She re-ceived several severe cuts and bruises on the head.

Dobbs and Mrs. New were convicted two years ago. The theory was that they were in love and conspired to get rid of New so they might marry. Ballard said Frank Algood, now in the penitentiary for forgery, William Turner and he were the real murderers.

Ballard told the story in detail, saying he belonged to a robber band organized by Algood and told the officers where they could find many stolen horses and vehicles. Ballard was taken from the penitentiary to verify his assertions, and aided the officers in recovering much stolen property. On the strength of this evidence, application for a hearing in the cases of Dobbs and Mrs. New was made before the District Court of Greenwood County, where they were convicted, but the motion was refused. Now that the Supreme Court has overruled the lower court's decision, the motion for a new trial will be heard at once.

Such was the message of Max Nordau sent from Paris to the annual convention of the Federations of American Zionista which assembled to-day in the Educational Alliance building, East Broadway and Jefferson street. The meeting was called to order by the Reverend Doctor S. S. Schafer of Baltimore, and an address of welcome was delivered by Doctor D. Blaustein, superintendent of the Educational Alliance she was born in Rochester, N. Y. A short time before her birth her mother and father had separated. Mrs. Le Clerque left her husband in New York City, and went to live with her relatives in Rochester. Unital was one of the twins. Her brother was a splendid, healthy baby. Unital was a puny child, and not much inclined to fight for her delicate life. When the mother began to recover from her long and almost fatal illness she asked at once for her child. "Here he is," said her sister, bringing in the little boy. The relatives meantime had decided that in case the mother did not recover two orphan children would be a rather severe tax upon their charity. Isidore D. Morrison, the honorary secretary, reported that there are now 135
Zionist societies in the United States, with a total membership of about 10,000. The territory represented includes such widely separated points as Bangor, Me., Seattle and Fort Worth, Tex. Rabbi Stephen S. Wise recommended the establishment of an official organ of the movement to be published monthly or bimonthly, and also the establishment of a Zionist book concern and of a depot for the sale of Palestine colonial products, which include wines, fruits and carved wood. He further suggested the organization of a great pilsrimage to Palestine. Addresses were delivered by the Reverend H. Peipera Mendes and the Reverend Mr. Seff of Vienna. In his report the Reverend Mr. Gotthell referred to the attacks on Hebrews in various Austrian towns.

"There seems to be no doubt," he sald, "that the coming year will see a large influx of our brethren from Galicia and Roumania, crowding our already over-crowded centers, making competition still more severe and adding to the work of our helping societies when they, even now, are unable to meet the demands made upon them.

York Orphans' Home. Her mother was not told of her existence. By a strange oversight of the relatives, who were so anxious to conceal the fact of her birth, the child was entered at the orphan asylum under her own name. But for this her identity would never have been discovered.

Three months after Uanitai was placed in the asylum, a Mr. and Mrs. N. Maywood came in search of a child to adopt. They had three sons and the dream of their lives was a little daughter. Uanitai suited them precisely. They took the child, adopted her by process of law and insisted that all evidence of her name and history be destroyed. Immediately after adopting the child they sailed for india. The Maywood family remained in India sixteen years. They gave their little girl her strange and musical Indian name, and the child believed that she was theirs by birth.

When the World's Fair year arrived the Maywood family decided to return to America. Then they came to Chicago and stayed during the season of the fair, afterwards going to New York to live at the Metropolitan Hotel. Uanitai was placed in Miss Phelps's school in New York and graduated there after a couple of years. She then came to Indianapolis to Mrs. May Wright Sewell's school. After a term there the girl went to visit relatives of her foster parents at Jacksonville, Ill.

In Jacksonville she met a handsome young fellow. Willie Le Clerque fell in love with each other and when she went back to New York they began a correspondence. Taft and his colleagues of the Philippine Civil Commission were beset during their first week in Manila by a multitude of callers of all nationalities, professions and interests, who presented a bewildering assortment of recommendations touching military and civil policies. The Commissioners maintained the attitude of unprejudiced listeners. They admit that, while they anticipated an enormous task, the complexity and difficulty of the problems and conditions are well nigh staggering.

One of the foremost questions is how and from what material to organize a civil force with which gradually to supersede the army as a governing machine. Spain's auxiliary, the church, is barred from consideration. American experience with the natives discourages the hope of honest government through them until a generation or more have eradicated the results of Spain's tutelage. A large proportion of the provincial officials already installed have preven treacherous, while the native police and officials here in Manila are living on a scale of luxury suspiciously disproportionate to their salaries. Charges against native Judges of failing to account for thousands of dollars received in fines are under investigation.

The Commissioners also find that the future state of the church in the Philippines is a leading question in the minds of many, aithough most of those who have talked with Judge Taft and his colleagues, draw the inference that the Commissioners are opposed to the reinstatement of the friars. Archbishop Chappelle has taken a strong stand in supporting the request of the friars to be established in their old position. to Neely. Washington, June 10.-The proceedings now in progress at Indianapolis, with a view to having produced and opened in court a package and letter addressed to C. W. F. quent intervals. As a rule matter sent through the mails under seal, and bearing postage at first-class rates, cannot be opened and inspected under any circumstances, except when an order for inspection is issued by a court.

It has been decided by the Supreme Court that such packages or letters cannot be opened by post office employes, but that a court has the same right to order such an investigation as if the articles were actually in the possession of the addressee. In order to obtain such an order deposition must be made that the package or letter in question is supposed to contain matter which should be made public, and the package must be specifically described.

It is presumed that the article addressed to Neely of necessity must be under seal, as a postmaster has the right to inspect all matter prepaid at third or fourth class rates. The fact that a package is sent at first-class rates, under seal, is regarded as a suspicious circumstance, indicating a desire to keep the contents secret, and it is believed that this fact may have had weight in directing the action of the post office inspectors in the present case.
